All-stars play in San Pedro

Campbell - Moreland Pony League all-stars, undefeated so far in tournament competition begin play tonight (Wednesday) in the western tournament in San Pedro, the last stop before the Pony League world series in San Diego next week.

If the C-M outfit wins in San Pedro, the team will not return to Campbell but will head immediately for San Diego.

The all-stars left Campbell Monday night by chartered bus for San Pedro with the best wishes of the community riding with them. On Friday the youngsters won the regional crown in Springville, Utah.

A fund drive initiated by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Paul Landwehr, secretary-manager, assisted by LeRoy Black, at press time had raised $500 to help defray the traveling expenses of the local team. It is estimated that $2000 will

Council faces two appeals at meeting next Monday

Appeals from rulings of the Planning Commission will feature the City Council meeting next Monday August 24, although action on one of the appeals is slated to be deferred until the special meeting of the council on August 31.

The main action on the appeal front will center on the request of the West Valley Junior College that storm drain fees be waived, totalling more that $3000, for the off-street parking areas that have been leased by the college.

One of the areas is a 2 1/2-acre parcel behind the college on Latimer and Winchester leased from Charles Rose. The other area is between Campbell and Rincon on Salice Way, Rose Court and Campbell Avenue.

COLLEGE ASKS

The college contends that the parking lots will be only a temporary use and at the end of the five-year period the property will revert to the original owners, College officials maintain that they will not benefit from the payment of storm drain fees. They also add that the college, in its first year of operation, is operating on a tight budget and that payment of the fees will work a financial hardship on the junior college or more particularly, the taxpayers who are footing the bill.

The Planning Commission by a split 3-2 vote refused to waive

Civic group to study expressway

Aroused Campbell businessmen and civic leaders will meet with the City Council this Thursday, August 20, at the city hall to study ways and means of amending the approved plans for San Tomas Expressway to allow for the opening of Latimer and Rincon avenues.

The study session was called by the City Council after a resolution submitted by the Chamber of Commerce opposing the blocking of the two streets. The Campbell Press has also waged an editorial battle calling attention to the problems that are bound to arise when both Rincon and Latimer are closed off.

L. E. (Bill) Means, owner of Campbell Drugs and long-time business and civic leader of the community, will attend the study session as a representative of the business areas that will be affected by the road blocks.

Means emphasized that the previous council had been "sold a bill of goods" in approving the plans calling for the blocked streets. The city had been informed that the same HOSPITAL BILLS, fortunately, is a field with which we must admit we have been quite unfamiliar.

But recently after our little wife had occasion to spend one night in a local hospital, we had ample opportunity to examine the bill and found it most revealing.

Or rather, unrevealing, come to think of it.

Our group insurance plan fortunately picked up most of the tab. But still the total amount sort of put us into shock in a mild way.

It really was our first personal experience with a hospital bill of recent vintage. The last time we were in a hospital, other than as a visitor, was when we were in the service. And our Uncle Sam footed that bill.

The hospital sent us an itemized statement for our wife's one night stay. Or it apparently was what passes for such an article in this machine - bookkeeping age.

Most intriguing was the item listed simply as "OTHER" on the bill.

"OTHER", although not high-priced in comparison to some of the other entries, still had a number of dollars after it. But no other explanation.

Then there was "MEDICATION" which also carried a few dollar signs but no amplication.

But we stopped our analysis about then and there.

We had begun to feel faint. And we felt our blood pressure rising.

It might have been something we had eaten. But we weren't taking any chances.

We also might end up in a hospital.

And those "OTHER" expenses might have finished us off.

POLICE CHIEF JOHN MORGAN and his wife Connie are justifably proud of the new additions to their family, the twin girls, Mary Jane and Mary Frances, born July 30.

John has been kidded about giving the two little gals the same first handle, i.e., Mary. People seemed to think that this double-double bit would sort of tend to complicate and confuse the identification of the two little look-alikes even more than anticipated.

John indicated that they contemplated a certain amount of trouble in telling the two apart at home. He wasn't about to make it any easier for those outside the family circle, which now is a pretty good sized one.

Mary Frances has six brothers and sisters. So has Mary Jane.

College-city relations

While we concede that the location of West Valley Junior College within our city limits for the next five years will possibly develop a number of problems for our city, we feel that the college will also be advantageous to our community in many respects.

We think the good and the bad must be weighed before any conclusions can be reached.

We recognize that there may be traffic jams and other traffic problems arise when 1000-plus more cars are moving in and out of town because of the college.

But we do not think the problems are insurmountable.

As a matter of fact no one at this stage of the game, no matter how expert he may be on these matters of traffic flow, can state how complex the traffic pattern will become because of the junior college.

The junior college opens for the first time next month. Thus there is no guide to go by based on past history.

We feel that at this time all efforts should be made by all agencies concerned to make the first steps as easy as possible for this new educational instutution that makes its debut in our town next month.

We do not think it is the time and place to see what roadblocks can be strewn in the path of the junior college.

We have been interested in the current relationship between the city and the college, especially over the development of the proposed off-street parking areas that will accommodate 1000 cars of the faculty and students of the college.

We think this relationship can be improved. And should be.

We find no fault with the Planning Commission rejecting the college's request for a use permit to use the substandard buildings that are located on the parking lot that has been leased from Charles Rose on Latimer.

It would be inconsistent for the official city family to condone the use of these houses and, at the same time, embark on an aggressive condemnation program on substandard structures in other sections of the city.

But in other phases of the off-street parking situation, we feel that the city should cooperate to the fullest with the college.

The junior college is expending more than $30,000 in the improvement of properties for parking purposes that will take many of the cars of the junior college people off the streets of the town. This will not take care of all the cars and many side streets will still be used by college students. But just think how rough it would be, if the college was not providing any off-street parking area.

Some critics have claimed that a police problem will result because of the college. They have used such statements as "wild-teenagers", "hot rodders", etc. to describe the difficulties the police are bound to have with the college students.

We think this is being unfair to members of the younger generation who are seeking a higher education.

We are not hiding our head in the sand. We appreciate the fact that some problems will develop that will complicate matters in our fair city. But we also maintain that the college will benefit the community in many ways, economically and culturally.

We are concerned also over the issue that faces the City Council on August 24 on an appeal from the Planning Commission with respect to the waiver of storm drain fees for the parking area development.

The Planning Commission refused to waive the $3100 storm drain fees as requested by the junior college. The request was made because the college was leasing the properties and they would revert to the owners when the lease was terminated.

But it is an established city policy to require storm drain fees. Apparently the Planning Commission felt that the policy should be followed, no matter whether the applicant was another tax-supported agency or a private individual.

While we agree that requiring storm drain fees is highly essential in the overall improvement program of the town, we question whether a tax-supported school district should be treated in the same manner as a non-tax-supported party.

Offhand it seems that one is just removing money from one pocket and putting it into another, in the same coat, taxpaying speaking.

We think under these circumstances that an agreement with the owners of the property that the fees would be paid when the property reverted to them would have been enough of a guarantee, despite the established policy of the city.

The junior college is here and will be for the next five years.

It will open next month with an enrollment of almost 2000 students.

We think we should all strive to live with the situation and make the best of it.

We go even further. We urge that city officials, residents and business people should try to make the going easier by cooperating in any way possible.

WORLD CHAMPIONS ... The way the Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars are burning up the tournament trail, it appears that this area is going to have a world championship team in just a couple of weeks.

The local Ponies, now regional champs, have yet to lose a game in winning the district, area, sectional and regional crowns. And the games have not even been close, except in one case.

Ironically it was in the first tournament and against a neighboring team, Cambrian Park. This was a cliff-hanger with the final score 4-3. Cambrian Park scored three runs in the last inning to scare the daylights out of the locals.

This tournament trail, however, is a pretty expensive undertaking and the kids need financial help. That is why the Chamber of Commerce is staging a fund drive to raise some dough to help out.

CAMPBELL-MORELAND need only to get by the tournament this week in San Pedro, which will decide the western division championship, and it will be world series time for the youngsters in San Diego.

The parents of the team members have assumed the biggest share of the financial load so far. The team went by cars to Utah last week. Incidentally, in the city of Springville, Utah, where the regional tourney was held, the kids stayed in homes of residents during the three-day tournament.

Gene Tritt, an airline pilot and father of Greg Tritt, one of the players, is only allowed to see one game in each tourney, he laughingly reported to us.

He has managed to be on hand for one game between his flights. And so far the team has yet to lose. He flew to Utah in order to keep his record intact. And, of course, the team won again.

He plans to be on hand in San Pedro also, for one game.

But we have a hunch, if the kids go into the World Series playoff, Tritt's routine could change.

But if the team loses and he was on hand... well...

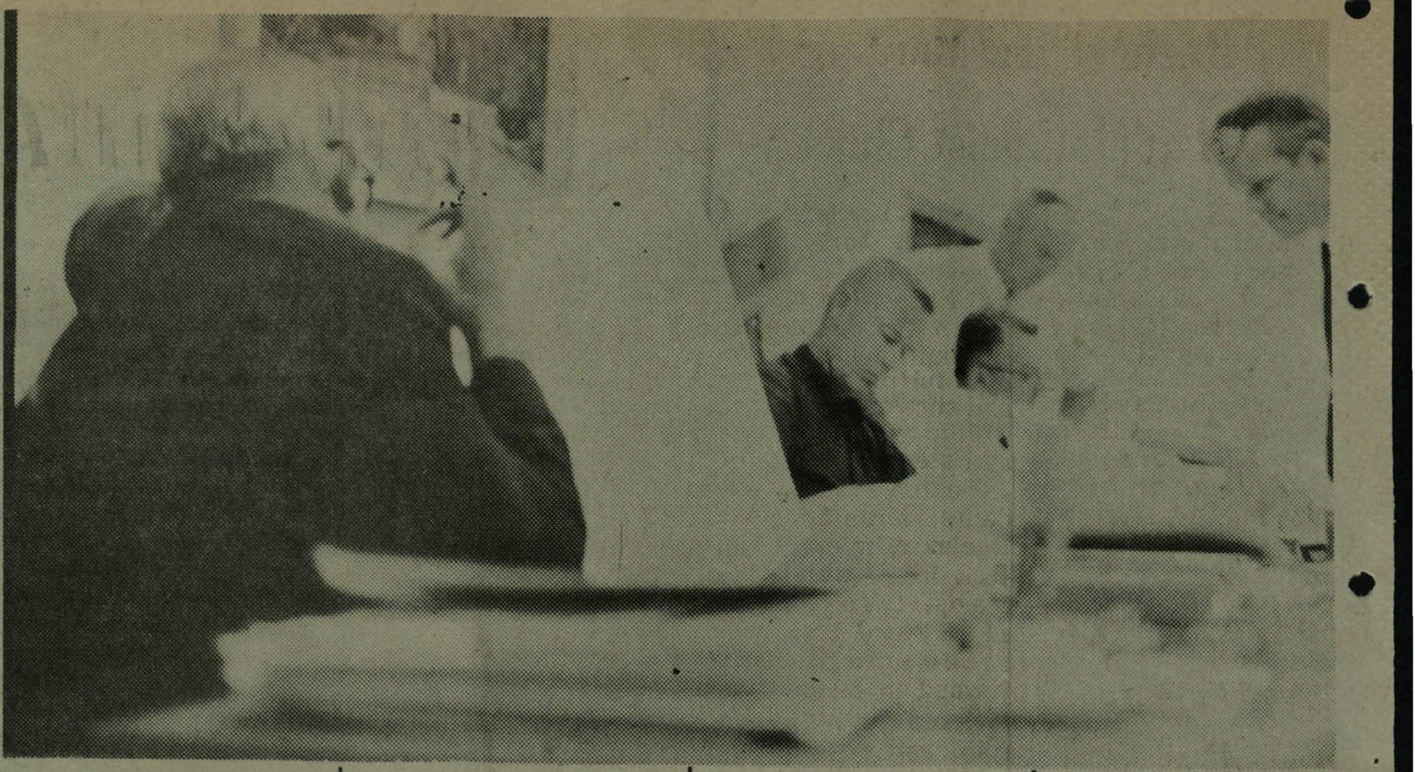
County gets $132 million

In Santa Clara County, during the 1963-64 fiscal year, over $132 million in current realty property taxes were collected, according to Louis A. Lopes, County Tax Collector.

The record collection of $132,567,306.47 was an increase of $16,484,343.52 over the previous fiscal year. Total delinquencies were $2,608,139.98 or 1.92 per cent. This percentage of delinquencies is 1.26 per cent less than the previous fiscal year and delinquencies are being redeemed quite rapidly, according to Lopes.

Other collections of property tax redemptions, unsecured personal property, penalties and costs, etc., brought the total collection for the fiscal year to $147,494,664.72.

Campbell has the dubious distinction of having the highest per cent of delinquency of any city in the county. The percentage for Campbell is 5.36 followed by Milpitas with 4.95%.



PLANNERS AT WORK--Members of the Planning Commission have had their work cut out for them at almost every meeting that body has held. Zone changes, variances, use permits, building plans and many other assorted and varied activities that are part of the "growing pains" of this community first have to be examined by the Planning Commission. Above members of the commission pore over maps that had been presented as part of zone change amendment.

the storm drain fees. The commission majority claimed that the policy of the city had been set and it was not the prerogative of the commission to waive the fees.

It will take a four-vote majority of the City Council to override the decision of the Planning Commission. This next Monday night will mean that it will take an unanimous vote inasmuch as Mayor Charles Rose will disqualify himself because his property is involved.

OTHER APPEAL

The other appeal matter will probably be continued until August 31 because the applicants, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Howe, of 45 Budd Ave., will be unable to be present.

The Howes are appealling the ruling of the Planning Commission on their request for a use permit to operate a nursery school for six children, 10 hours weekly in their home. The Commission approved the use permit but attached the condition that the Howes dedicate a portion of the street to the city. If and when the street is widened and improved; the city will not have to acquire the 10-feet needed.

Planning Commission members unanimously approved the condition as recommended by Myron Hawk, public works director. Hawks said it would not work a hardship on the property owner and it was the established policy of the city to require such dedication.

INSURANCE

At next Monday's meeting, the City Councity may tackle the knotty problem of what to do with the group insurance program now in effect for city employees. The city has been informed that the rates are to be increased this year because of the unfavorable experience of the city during the past year.

The city must decide by September 15 whether to amend or change the present program.

The council will also receive a current report on the status of the corporation yard as to the cost of concrete block or metal build-

Proposed plans and specifications for Phase II of the improvement of Campbell Park will also be submitted by George Martin, landscape architect. Council members previously have indicated that they want to take a long hard look at the plans and specs before submitting them to bids.

City Manager Bob Stephens will also request that a policty be adopted on crossing guards and crosswalks by the city. The policy would include standards that would be used in this traffic safety matter.

policy would be followed in all cities served by the expressway, but it didn't turn out that way, he says.

"Look what happened in Santa Clara," Means points out. "There is an off-street proposed for almost every block in that town. In addition, Hamilton and Campbell avenues will not be able to handle the traffic flow and those two streets will be needed to help carry this load."

"There is another big point to be considered," Means adds. "The blocking of the two streets will adversely affect the traffic flow of the shopping centers in Campbell and thus cut down the sales tax revenue that will go to the city."

Others who will attend the meeting, including John Faber, representing the Downtown Campbell Improvement Association, and Ted Regas, chairman of the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce, were equally as definite in their opposition to the closing of the two streets.

But both city officials and business people are aware that it will be a tough battle to get the expressway plans changed at this late date.

But Council members have expressed concern, they seem willing to press the fight. In anticipation of the long road that lies ahead, Mayor Charles Rose and Councilman Ralph Doetsch have been appointed to the County Trafficways Committee, in order to officially voice the attitude of Campbell on that body. This committee apparently will have the greatest say in whether the plans can be changed.

MRS. ANTHONY E. DEVLIN
(Veronica Di Martino)

The Anthony Devlins honeymoon in Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony E. Devlin received a special Papal Blessing from Pope Paul VI following their marriage at St. Lucy's Church recently. The young couple are now on a round-the-world trip to be followed by a 30 day tour of Europe and are expected to return to the Bay Area in the fall.

The bride is the former Miss Veronica Lee Di Martino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Di Martino, 361 W. Rincon Ave., Campbell. For the formal high noon nuptial ceremony, the brunette bride was attired in traditional lace gown, designed with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline and long, tapered sleeves. Her skirt flowed to a chapel train. A petal cuplet of lace outlined with pearls secured a bouffant elbow length veil of imported silk illusion. Her crescent shaped bouquet of white carnations and stephanatis was highlighted with two small lavender orchids.

The nuptial mass was offered by the bridegroom's brother, Rev. Raymond Devlin, S.J. assisted by another brother, Rev. James Devlin and a cousin, Rev. Wm. Duggan.

Miss Pamela Jean Di Martino, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She was attired in a full length gown of blush pink chiffon over taffeta, featuring sheath lines. A tiny pearl crown with a bouffant veil completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of lavender carnations with ribbon contrast.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Dick Schrodel of Campbell and the Misses Beverly Summers and Mary Scholtes of Berkeley. Their blush pink gowns were identical to the Maid of Honor and they carried bouquet of lavender carnations.

Roy N. Re of San Francisco was the best man and the ushers were William V. Clifford, Gerald C. Griffin and Daryle J. Norton, all of San Francisco.

A reception for relatives and friends was held at Villa Felice in Los Gatos where the newlyweds cut a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake.

On their return from Europe Mr. and Mrs. Devlin will make their home in Berkeley. The bride is a graduate of Campbell High School and San Jose State College where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Medical Technology.

The bridegroom is the son of James J. Devlin and the late Mrs. Devlin of San Francisco. He is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and the University of San Francisco. He is an auditor for the State Board of Equalization.

THAT FEMININE TOUCH

By Dolores Keywood

For years now women have been begging for a foundation that will not turn orange or pink. There is a shade for every skin color closest to your natural skin tone.

Foundation was not meant to change the color of your skin but rather to give it a smooth, all in one look. Also to cover minor blemishes. The powder you use should also be colorless, so again you still have your natural skin color.

Color should be applied where you want it, so it appears to be natural, such as on the cheeks, the chin, or the forehead. The new blush on pressed powder idea is perfect for this. It comes with a fluffy, full brush, so it may be applied all over the face to create that sunny glow. A little extra on the nose gives you that, "I've been in the sun" look, without having to spend the time at the beach.

The ideal shaped face is supposed to be oval, but now you can create the oval illusion with the help of a blush-on or a darker foundation. Apply it to the areas you want minimized. For instance, if your jaw area is too wide, simply apply blush-on or a dark foundation here, and this will add shadow to make the full jaws seem to disappear. The same thing applies to the nose. If it is long, add the foundation to the end of the nose. If the nose is wide the darker foundation is applied to the sides of the nose.

Remember, "Practice makes perfect", "Rome wasn't built in a day," and "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Under the tight censorship of Pentagon news by Defense Secretary McNamara and Assistant Secretary Sylvester, some weird and unbelievable inconsistencies have turned up. The situation is so serious that most persons who are knowledgeable in national defense matters, automatically look for and often find a "gimmick" hidden in each Pentagon announcement.

About six months ago the House recognized that the Air Force needed an Improved Manned Interceptor aircraft (IMI) to fill a gap in our air defenses and authorized $40 million for the planes against Secretary McNamara's wishes. About the same time President Johnson announced the fabulous new A-11 aircraft over national television and implied it was an interceptor. Secretary McNamara then told a press conference that the A-11 had been developed originally as an interceptor. Those of us who were familiar with the history of the plans back to 1959 knew this was not the case. But the announcement served its purpose and the $40 million was dropped.

When the supersonic transport program was in the doldrums, the A-11 was brought into the act playing a new role. It was used to prove that titanium, so essential to high speed flight, had finally been tamed for use in aircraft. This revealed another McNamara inconsistency. Earlier he had partially justified his TFX decision on grounds that titanium, used in competing versions, was too difficult to handle. Yet at the time of his TFX decision, it was already known that the handling of titanium had been mastered in the A-11.

Just a few weeks ago the President used his star performer, the A-11, in still another role. Calling it the SR-71 he implied it had been started in 1963 as a reconnaissance aircraft. It was left to technical aviation reporters to reveal that the SR-71, started in 1959, is little more than the A-11 with a new number painted on its titanium skin.

As AVIATION WEEK said on August 3, "We suspect that the next chapter in the checkered career of the A-11 will be the "revalation" at the most opportune political moment that it can be a bomber, too, thus eliminating any further need for the development of the B-70,...".

The furor over the timing of President Johnson's television announcement of our counterattack against Vietnam one hour and thirty-nine minutes before the actual strike has been fanned by an inconsistent Pentagon explanation. Secretary McNamara's contention that the President's announcement did not tip our hand because North Vietnamese radar had already picked up our attacking aircraft does not hold up. At the conservative jet speed of 500 miles per hour, our planes would have been 825 miles from their target one hour and thirty-nine minutes before the strike—well beyond the range of Communist radar. To have been within range, our jets would have had to be flying in circles—hardly an efficient combat maneuver.

Americans have legitimate reason to raise questions about our actions in Vietnam. Their questions should be answered as forthrightly as the national security will allow. They should not be answered with a system of political censorship.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

By Gladstone A. Boquist
Field Representative

Q.-Are all household workers covered by social security, or just maids?

A.-Anyone working in or about your home may be covered, if you pay her $50 or more in cash wages for the quarter.

Q.-I am 62 years of age and I operate a frozen custard stand during the summer. My yearly earnings are about $5000. I don't work at all during the winter. Can I receive social security payments?

A.-Yes, you may be able to get benefits for the months you are not working. A person can collect his benefits for each month in which he neither earns over $100 in wages nor renders substantial services in his own business.

Q.-Must I report the wages which I pay to our regular teen-age baby-sitter?

A.-Yes, if you pay her as much as $50 in cash wages during the calendar quarter.

Highway patrol warns about use of flares by motorists

Increasing use by motorists of flares or fuses to warn of impending hazards on the highway has brought several cautioning reminders from Captain R. P. Bliss, commander of the California Highway Patrol's San Jose area.

"When placing flares, be sure that the first one is far enough away-probably no less than 100 yards--from the damaged or stalled vehicle to give oncoming traffic ample time to stop or slow. One flare alone frequently is insufficient; usually three or more should be placed on an angled line which tends to lead cars around the obstruction, not into it," he said.

"if the stalled or damaged vehicle is not actually in, or projecting into, a traffic lane, it is better to avoid using flares.

"Be particularly careful in placing lighted flares around accident scenes. Many times gasoline and oil have been spilled in the vicinity. Take extra care as well in areas where roadside brush, timber or grass might catch fire. Every year serious blazes are caused by careless flare or fusee placement.

"Never depend on a flare to halt or even slow traffic. Keep your eyes and ears open, and take the same precautions that you would take if no flares were available."

The commande pointed out that lighting a fusee must be done properly to avoid being burned.

"Fusees are not lighted with a match. A piece of tape or similar material holds the cap to the body of the flare. Strip this tape off, then twist the cap to free it. On the top of the cap is an abrasive. Strike this sharply against the now-exposed fusee head, being sure to point the flare away from yourself and others. The friction will ignite the flare, which can then be placed on the ground."

Campbell-Moreland wins easily in Utah

Campbell-Moreland Pony League all stars made a clean sweep of the regional tournament held in Springville, Utah last week. This week they are taking part in the tournament in San Pedro to determine the western championship, the last stop before the world series in San Diego.

The locals had an easy time of it in the Utah tourney romping to a 15-2 victory in the final game on Thursday night against Central Marin County. The game was halted by a rule which prohibits continuation of play if a team is leading by more than 12 runs. Campbell-Moreland had downed Central Marin 14-3 on Wednesday night.

Ted Campbell was on the mound and struck out nine and walked only two. Vaughn Takaha was the top batter of the tourney with eight hits in 17 times at bat. He and Campbell collected three hits and Mike Ucci two. They batted in three runs apiece.

Mark Taku was on the mound when C-M defeated Central Marin 14-3. He pitched three-hit ball while his teammates were collecting 12, including two homers. Vaughn Takaha hit the second pitch of the game for a homer and Taku hit a two-run homer in the second. He drove in three runs with three hits.

be needed to meet all the expenses. The C. of C. will accept large, small and medium contributions. The C. of C. office is at 33 N. First St.

Donations from service clubs are also expected to swell the total considerably. The fund drive will continue all this and through next week, if the youngsters go into the finals.

The San Pedro tournament brings the four regional champions together and the winner will be crowned western champ. In San Diego four teams, representing all four sections of the United States, will battle it out for the worlds championship. Each team playing in the world series will be given uniforms by the Pony League organization.

The local team in the long tournament haul has been outfitted in the Campbell Optimist Club uniforms. The Optimist team won the championship of the local league.

The tournaments are all double-elimination affairs. If Campbell-Moreland wins tonight, they play again on Friday. The final western tournament playoff game will be held Sunday.

College board gets report on Saratoga site

A report on a proposed site in Saratoga for the West Valley Junior College campus was presented at a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The report, presented by Chester Root of the architectural firm of Higgins and Root, site consultants, summarized:

1. That the site is well-located to the attendance area, both present and long range.
2. That access to the site by major roads, freeways and expressways is excellent.
3. That the land cost is the lowest in the central area of the West Valley District.
4. That utilities are readily available.
5. That development costs of the site are low.

Root presented figures, based on county planning office studies, which estimated a junior college student potential of 4918 in the district in 1965 which would grow to 14,563 in 1985, necessitating three campuses--one in a central area, one north and one in the south--by that year.

Earlier several residents of Saratoga addressed the board in opposition to locate the first campus at the intersection of Fruitvale and Allendale Avenues. When asked by Trustee Chairman Bruce Allen, who clearly indicated that the Board had made no decision relative to the choice of a site, to identify themselves as in opposition to the proposed site for the campus, eleven persons stood up.

A principal speaker for the opponents, Jack Pierce, of 19050 Gardner Lane, Saratoga, said the area being considered was one of one-acre minimum zoning and not equipped for heavy traffic. His group, he said, was in favor of education, but location of the junior college on the Saratoga site "would very seriously interfere with all that has made Saratoga our little paradise."

In support of the proposed location G.C. McKinney of 21151 Canyon View Drive, Saratoga, said "I reject the idea that a junior college would be detrimental to Saratoga, or that any college would be detrimental to any city. Look at what M.I.T. (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) has done for Boston. And certainly Foothill College is now a real asset to Los Altos Hills."

ALL-STAR COACH--Roger Gaetjen, above, is coach of the Campbell-Moreland League all-stars now playing in San Pedro for the western championship of the United States. The local team is undefeated in tournament play, having won the district, area, sectional and regional championships. If Campbell-Moreland win in San Pedro, the team goes to San Diego the following week for the world Pony League series.

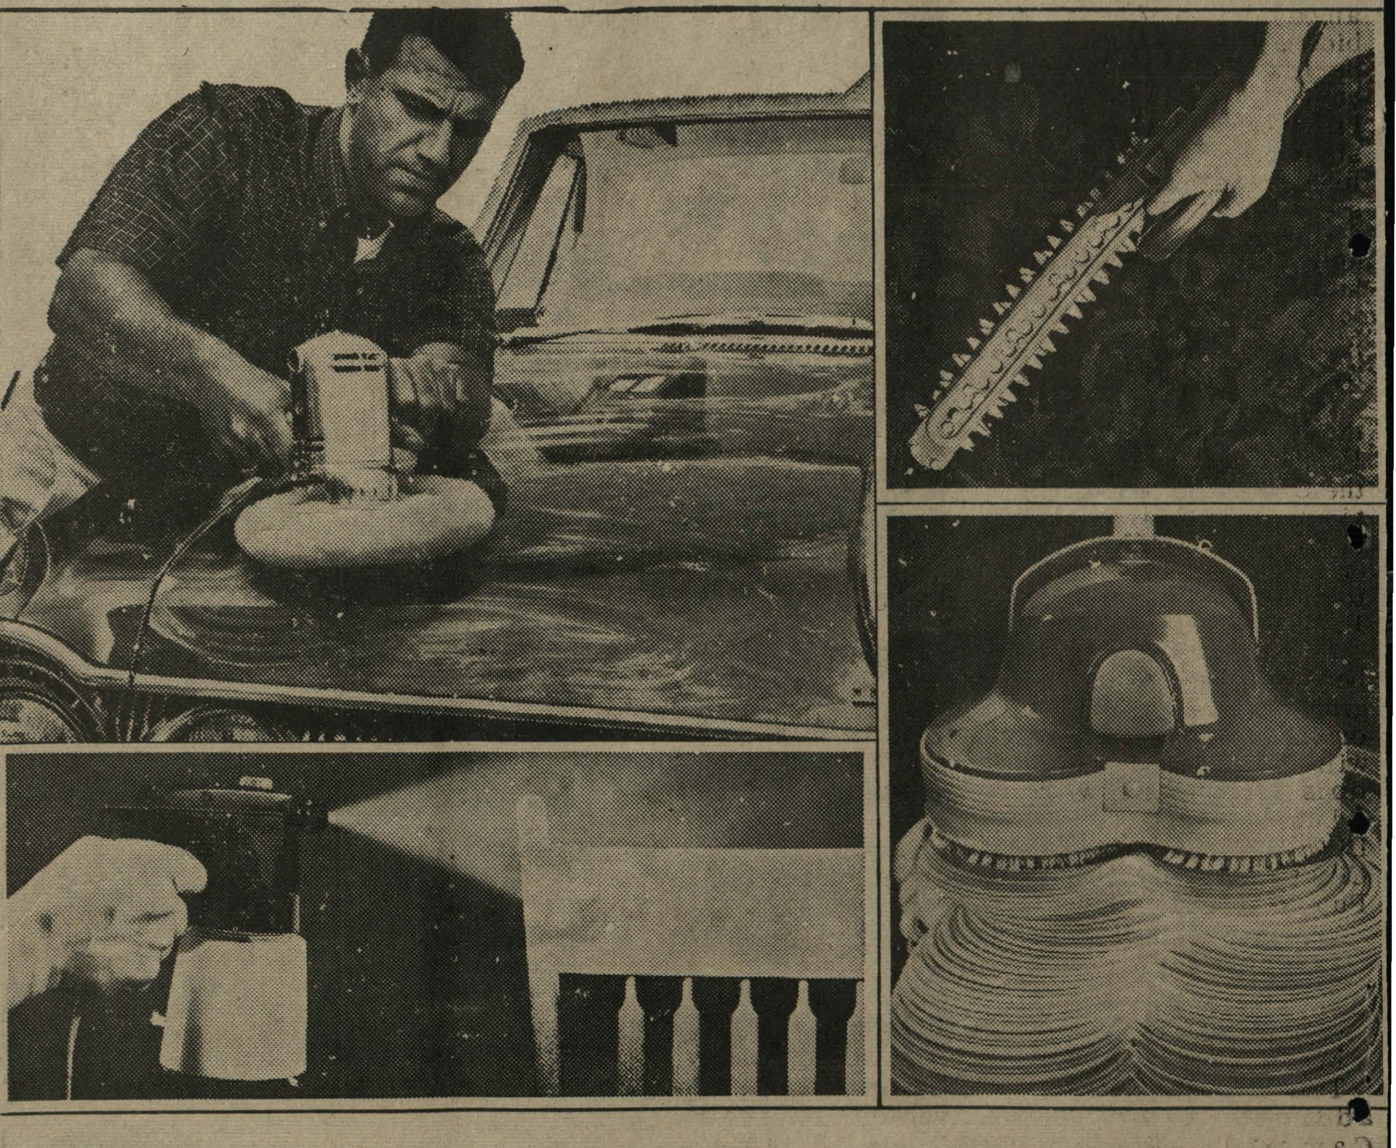
School balls called nuisance

Mrs. Ruth Phariss, who resides at 714 Jeffery Way, which is adjacent to the Hazelwood School, is in the middle of a running bout with school authorities over the annoyance of school balls which keep coming over the fence into her yard.

Mrs. Phariss has complained to the Campbell Police Department that two Hazelwood School youngsters took two balls which are her personal property in addition to five other balls belonging to the school from her garage recently. She allegedly stated she was keeping the school balls to "hold over the heads of the school authorities." The youngsters reported they saw the balls in her garage and reported it to the principal of the school's property. Mrs. Phariss reported she has complained to the school several times previously that the tether ball pole is too close to her back yard and creates a nuisance.

PHARMACISTS CHANGE LEADERS--Lawrence E. "Bill" Means of Campbell Drug and Pharmacy (standing) and Irving Sprugasci (left) of Willow Glen Pharmacy, newly-appointed directors of the Santa Clara County Pharmacy Owners Association confer with the group's new president, Philip C. Brown of Santa Clara. The officers were elected at the group's annual election meeting at the Hotel De Anza in San Jose. Other officers not shown in the photo are John W. Beebe, vice-president, and Charles Klotz, re-elected secretary-treasurer, both of San Jose.



Nowadays chores cost you less because your PG&E rates have gone down

Nearly everything has gone up in price these days—except your PG&E rates. In fact, there have been 3 gas and electric rate reductions in the past 3 years. Today the typical PG&E household customer pays less than 30 years ago for the same amount of gas and electricity. But count the things around your home that gas and electricity are doing for you and your family today. You are using 3 times as much as families did 30 years ago. So naturally, though the unit price is lower, your bill is bigger. Even so, you live better for less because PG&E service is a bigger bargain than ever.

ENDS TRAINING--Marine Private Robert L. Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland J. Blalock, of 1010 Linda Drive, Campbell, recently completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. Following graduation he was assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for advanced infantry training.

JC board spends $21,590 for furniture, instruments

Five purchase contracts totalling $21,590 for office furniture, pianos and other musical instruments were awarded by trustees of the West Valley Joint Junior College District.

The Board also approved purchase of three automobiles for $4,379 and for 41 instructional typewriters and seven dictating machines for a total of $17,855.

All awards, according to District Superintendent, Wallace W. Hall, were made after following the competitive bidding procedure. The office furniture will be acquired under a lease-purchase agreement whereby the District will lease the equipment for five years and at the end of that time will assume title. This arrangement was necessary after the failure of the bond issue last March made unavailable bond funds for the purchase of equipment, according to James P. Hardy, dean of business services. A breakdown of the awards follows:

Desk, chairs and tables, James Hill Company Incorporated, 389 West Santa Clara Ave., $3410.05; office chairs, Curtis Lindsay, Inc., 77 South First St., $1429.75; file cabinets, Whalen Brothers Office Equipment, Inc., 173 West San Fernando, $3362.60; pianos and other musical equipment, Ferguson Music House, 30 East San Fernando, $13,388.22; one-half ton pickup truck, Courtesy Chevrolet, 3030 Stevens Creek Road, $1831.45; two station wagons, International Harvester Co., 1505 North Fourth St., $2,547.62; typewriters and dictating machines, International. Business Machines, 1955 The Alameda, $17,855.

In other actions the Board:

1. Approved payment of financial claims in the amount of $77,263.69, the largest item being a payment of $67,648.87 to R. W. Michael, General Contractor, as second payment on renovation of buildings at the temporary campus site.

2. Approved appointment of Wendell H. Nevins as Book Store Manager; Mrs. Lois Witherspoon as a Clerk-Typist II; Mrs. Marjorie Porter as Clerk-Typist I.

3. Approved inter-district agreement contracts with Compton Junior College, El Camino College, Long Beach Unified School District, Modesto Junior College, Mount San Antonio College, Orange Coast College, Palo Verde Unified School District, and Pasadena City Junior College District.

At a subsequent special meeting of the Board, a contract was awarded for automated and across-the-counter hot and cold food service for the students to the DePaul Automatic Company of San Jose. Basis for the award was the higher rate of return on the sales proceeds to the district. The equipment will be installed in the Student Center on the campus.

WORK BEGINS--Several of the original members of the Church of Christ of Campbell were on hand for the ground breaking ceremonies for their new church building to be constructed on West Campbell Ave. The new structure will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year. Pictured here (left to right) are Mrs. Alice Hall, Mrs. Maggie Noonkester, Dee Noonkester, Mrs. Opal Noonkester, Mrs. J.E. Coffey and Mrs. Floyd Holt.

Welcome for new minister

Rev. Don Stram, new minister of the First Christian Church of Campbell, and his wife and children, will be honored at a church fellowship gathering and shower tonight at Orchard City Grange Hall.

Mrs. Stram and the youngsters have arrived here from Salem, Oregon to join Mr. Stram. They are now residing at 1758 Conrad, San Jose, and have invited anyone to call at anytime. They are about to complete an office in their home and the telephone number is 264-3189.

Mrs. Litynsky heads local Milias campaign

Leonard Wade, Chairman of the Committee to re-elect Assemblyman George Milias, today announced the appointment of Mrs. Ellis Litynsky as Campbell area chairman for the fall campaign.

Mrs. Litynsky is a native of Campbell where she received her formal education, later graduating from the University of California with a BA degree.

In 1957 she was appointed Postmaster of the Campbell office and served in that capacity until 1963. She has worked as a volunteer for the American Cancer Society as well as the Boy Scouts of America, and is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Her involvement in the Milias organization will be her first political assignment since 1957, due to Federal regulations regarding government employees.

In accepting the appointment, Mrs. Litynsky stated that she would work for Assemblyman Milias' re-election in order to insure the continuance of the responsible leadership in Sacramento which he has consistently demonstrated in the past two years.

Church of Christ starts construction of new church

The Church of Christ of Campbell had formal groundbreaking ceremonies for its new church building recently. The Congregation has authorized Church Construction Company to begin work on the $200, 000 structure adjacent to the Coventry School on West Campbell Ave. The first unit of construction will contain the fellowship hall, educational unit, and administrative facilities.

The structure will be available for occupancy the first of the year. Future units on the four and one-half acre site will be a second educational building and the church sanctuary.

The Church of Christ of Campbell first began to meet in Campbell in 1942 in the Women's Club building. Shortly after a building was constructed on Latimer Avenue where the congregation met until the construction of its present building at 65 West Rincon Ave. in 1952. Charles Shelton is the minister of the Church.

Episcopalians oppose repeal of housing law

Dioceses of the Episcopal Church at their 1964 Convention passed the following resolution: "Be it resolved that each mission and parish of this Diocese is directed to encourage the execution of "Open Occupancy" pledges as a witness to the fact that in their neighborhoods they will welcome to residence any good neighbor of any race or religion."

The local St. Lawrence Church proposed the following resolution: "The Vicar and Bishop Committee of St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, Campbell, declare their opposition to repeal the reasonable and effective State Fair Housing Law now in effect. We urge all members of our congregation to seek to influence business associates, friends and neighbors to develop the widest possible community support of this basic legal guarantee of equal opportunity for acquiring housing. We stand opposed to Proposition 14 on the November ballot and dedicate ourselves to the defeat of this Proposition."
